Adam-12* Series Coming To FETV April 3RD

*The Police Procedural TV Series Co-Created by Jack Webb and Robert A. Cinader
Will Join Emergency! in FETV's Primetime Lineup*

South Bend, IN – FETV (Family Entertainment Television), home to beloved and timeless television series and movies carried across cable, satellite, and virtual platforms, announced today that Adam-12 will be joining the network's lineup of programming beginning Monday, April 3rd. The show will debut in its regular time slot every night at 6p ET and 11p ET, leading out of Emergency! at 10p ET.

"We are thrilled to add Adam-12, one more example of Jack Webb's enduring impact on American culture, to our lineup of beloved TV series," said Jaclyn Rann Cohen, Executive Vice President, Content Acquisitions & Strategy. "I'm looking forward to sharing the excitement with our viewers as we revisit all the great story lines with Officers Malloy and Reed while they patrol the streets of Los Angeles."

Adam-12 was created and executive produced by Jack Webb, who also created Dragnet and Emergency!. The series stars Martin Milner as Officer Pete Malloy and Kent McCord as Officer Jim Reed. As with Dragnet and Emergency!, the episode plots for Adam-12 were derived from actual case files. The television series ran on NBC for seven seasons from 1968 to 1975.

FETV's current lineup features popular television series such as Emergency!, Leave It to Beaver, Perry Mason, and Rawhide. According to Nielsen, FETV's total audience in primetime (7pm-12am ET) ranks among the top 40 ad-supported cable networks, driven by the success of Emergency! and Perry Mason.
